This 1890 seashore Victorian in Manasquan, NJ has 27 windows with authentic moveable louvers, finish in Pittburgh Paint "Bourbon"

SCOTT ERICKSON

This Greek Revival Farmhouse is named the Reverend James Bicknell House (1802 - 1849) after an 8th generation Bicknell, also a shoemaker by trade. He was a descendant of Zachariah Bicknell who came over on the ship Alliance in 1635. The home was built in 1848 and is eligible for the National Register. Interior traditional moveable louvers and authentic hardware dress up this bath window.

This Greek revival was built for Ichabod Leigh in 1835 and is on the national registry of historic places. Many of the home's original details remain, including carved marble mantles, Greek key molding in the vestibule and a four-story cupola. Because it is a landmark, great care was taken to maintain the original character of the shutters, paneled on the first story and louvered on the second.

CHARLES THOMAS

Originally a three room farmhouse built around 1860 in the Indian Hill suburb of Cincinnati, OH this home was extensively enlarged, in the early 1900's and later in the 1940's. The original owner was a horticulturist and grew grapes and produced wine. It was known as Voorhee's Vineyard. The current residents are restoring wood floors, updating the kitchen and butler's pantry, converted the old basement garage into a rec room and added a four car garage. The black fixed louvers are stark against the brick and shake siding.

NORTH BREVARD HERITAGE FOUNDATION

ROZ FOSTER

The Pritchard House is a fine example of "Queen Anne" style architecture, built of heart pine in 1891 by Pleasant J. Hall. The house was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1990. Pritchard family members continuously lived in the house, with Mary Pritchard Schuster living here until it was purchased for historic preservation by Brevard County in May 2005.

PHILLIP MORRIS CONSTRUCTION

This circa 1853 house with detailed and ornate front porch was completely restored by Philip Morris Construction, Inc. and is where the owners currently reside. It is located in Southport, a small, historic coastal town in CT. It was once a boarding school for girls, and a day school for both boys and girls, named Seaside Seminary, founded by Miss August Smith in the 1800's.

JAMES FEELEY

This home was built in 1860 and the original owner was a farmer in Centerport, Long Island NY . The William Mott family lived in the house for ninety five years. The current resident, James Feeley is the 3rd owner. It is on NY State Highway 25-A and faces south, where the sun bakes the porch in the summer time. It still has the original floors and walls (wood lath & plaster) with bulls eye moldings and red brick basement. The windows you see are 1860 the original windows. The shutters are authentic moveable louvers.

JANIE AND BUZZY DOBBINS

A Louisville, Kentucky charmer with seven bedrooms, built in 1942, stayed in the family since 1945 and was enlarged by 1800 square feet in 1997. The original shutters were replaced by Shuttercraft with fixed louvers in time for a wedding. Through the years the home has accommodated a number of parties, weddings, and is a wonderful home to entertain for Kentucky Derby parties and family gatherings.

JUDITH FRANCIS

Brooklyn has some of the nation's finest examples of homes dating back to the 1840's, and almost all of these buildings once had shutters. Roy Sloane and Judi Francis, whose home is located in the Cobble Hill Historic District, worked closely with Shuttercraft on shutter dimensions, colors, and hardware in the restoration of their brownstone.' The result has been transformational for this home and for this Landmark district.

House was built in 1937 in Stoneleigh a northern suburb of Baltimore, Maryland. Shuttercraft made the long shutters for the two windows on the first floor to the right and left of the front door. The house was originally built with long shutters, but were replaced with shorter shutters before current owners purchased the house. They prefer the long shutters that highlight the brick work under each of the lower windows.
